Hello, I'm Severn Suzuki.

I (1)raised all the money myself to come six thousand miles to tell you adults you must change your ways. I am fighting for my future.

You don't know how to fix the holes in our ozone layer. You don't know how to bring salmon back up to a dead river. You don't know how to bring back an animal now ※extinct. And you can't bring back forests that once grew. Now there is desert. If you don't know what to do, please stop breaking (5)them!

In Canada, we live the ※privileged life, with plenty of food, water and ※shelter. We have watches, bicycles, computers and television sets. Two days ago here in Brazil, we were (6) when we spent some time with some children living on the streets. A child told us: "※I wish I was rich. I would give all the street children food, clothes, medicine, shelter and love and affection." If a child on the street who has (a) ※is willing to share, why are we who have (b) still so ※greedy? I can't stop thinking that these children are my age and that where you are born makes a difference.

I'm only a child, yet I know if all the money spent on war is spent on ending poverty and finding solutions to the environment, what a wonderful place this (7)earth will be!

Don't forget why you're attending these ※conferences, who you're doing this for. We are your own children. You are deciding what kind of world we will grow up in. My father always says "You are what you do, not what you say." Please make your actions reflect your (c).

※herd 群れ ※wonder if～ ～かどうか心配する、疑問に思う ※solution 解決策

※extinct 絶滅している ※privileged life 恵まれた生活 ※shelter 住む場所

※I wish I was～ もし私が～だったら ※is willing to～ ～を望む

※greedy 欲張りな ※conference 会議

Once when I was a teenager, my father and I were standing in line to buy tickets for the circus. Finally, there was only one family between us and the (1)ticket counter. (2)This family made a big impression on me. There were eight children, all probably under the age of 12. You could tell they didn't have a lot of money. Their clothes were not expensive, but they were clean. The children were well-behaved, all of them standing in line, two-by-two behind their parents, holding hands. They were excitedly talking about the lions, elephants and other acts they would see that night. They had never been to the circus before. It would be a highlight of their young (3).

The ticket lady asked the father how many tickets he wanted. He responded, "Please let me buy eight children's tickets and two adult tickets so I can take my family to the circus." The ticket lady told the price. (4)The man's wife let go of his hand and her head dropped. The father stepped a little closer to the ticket counter and asked, "How much did you say?" The ticket lady again told him the price. The man closed his mouth and said nothing. How could he turn to his children and tell them that he didn't have (5)enough money to take them to the circus?

My dad was watching what was going on, and put his hand into his pocket, pulled out a $20 bill and dropped it on the ground. My father reached down, picked up the bill, tapped the man on the shoulder and said, "Excuse me, this bill fell out of your pocket."

(6)The man knew what happened. He looked straight into my dad's eyes, took my dad's hand in both of his hands. He cried silently. "Thank you, thank you, Mr. This really means a lot to me and my family."

My father and I went back to our car and drove home. We didn't go to the circus that night, but I was really happy.
